Child Protection Policy: Cranbourne Cricket Club

Introduction

The Cranbourne Cricket Club is committed to promoting and protecting the interests and safety of children. We have a zero tolerance approach to child abuse. Everyone involved with the Cranbourne Cricket Club is responsible for the care and protection of children and reporting information about child abuse to relevant authorities.

Purpose

The purpose of the policy is:

1. To Facilitate the prevention of child abuse occurring at the Cranbourne Cricket Club
2. To work towards an organisational culture of child safety
3. To prevent child abuse within the Cranbourne Cricket Club
4. To ensure that all parties are aware of their responsibilities for identifying possible occasions for child abuse and for establishing controls and procedures for preventing such abuse and/or detecting abuse when it occurs.
5. To provide a clear statement to volunteers and club members as to action they should take where they suspect any abuse within the Cranbourne Cricket Club.
6. To provide a clear statement to volunteers and club members forbidden any such abuse
7. To provide assurance that any and all suspected of abuse will be reported and fully investigated.

Child Protection Procedures Responsibilities

The committee of the Cranbourne Cricket Club has ultimate responsibility for the detection and prevention of child abuse and is responsible for ensuring that appropriate and effective internal control systems are in place.

The committee of the Cranbourne Cricket is responsible for:

- Dealing with reports of Child Abuse
- Ensuring that all members and stakeholders are aware of relevant laws, organisational policies and procedures and the organisation's Code of Conduct
- Ensuring that all adults within the Cranbourne Cricket Club community are aware of their obligation to report suspected sexual abuse of a child in accordance with these policies and procedures;
- Ensuring that all staff, contractors, stakeholders and volunteers are aware of their obligation to observe the Code of Conduct (particularly as it relates to child safety);
- Providing support for volunteers in undertaking their child protection responsibilities. All club members must ensure that they:

- Promote child safety at all times;
- Assess the risk of child abuse within their area of control and eradicate I minimise any risk to the extent possible;

Club Members and players should be familiar with the types of abuse that might occur within their area of responsibility and be alert for any indications of such conduct.

The Cranbourne Cricket Club committee will alert relevant authorities if:

- A child states that they have been physically or sexually abused;
- A child states that they know someone who has been physically or sexually abused (sometimes the child may be talking about themselves)
- Someone who knows a child states that the child has been physically or sexually abused;
- Professional observations of the child's behaviour or development leads a professional to form a belief that the child has been physically or sexually abused or is likely to be abused; and/or
- Signs of abuse lead to a belief that the child has been physically or sexually abused.

Recruitment of New Members and Players The Cranbourne Cricket Club will undertake a comprehensive recruitment and screening process for all players and volunteers which aims to:

- Promote and protect the safety of all children under the care of the organisation;
- Identify the safest and most suitable people who share Cranbourne Cricket Club's values and commitment to protect children; and
- Prevent a person from playing at Cranbourne Cricket Club if they pose a risk to children.

RESPONDING

If it is alleged that a member of the Cranbourne Cricket may have committed an offence or have breached the organisation's policies or its Code of Conduct the person concerned may be stood down while an investigation is conducted. If the investigation concludes that on the balance of probabilities an offence (or a breach of the organisation's policies or Code of Conduct) has occurred then disciplinary action may follow, up to and including dismissal or cessation of involvement with the Cranbourne Cricket Club. The findings of the investigation will also be reported to any external body as required.

PRIVACY

All personal information considered or recorded will respect the privacy of the individuals involved unless there is a risk to someone's safety. The Cranbourne Cricket Club will have safeguards and practices in place to ensure any personal information is protected. Everyone is entitled to know how the personal information is recorded, what will be done with it, and who will be able to access it.

REVIEWING

Every two years, and following every reportable incident, a review shall be conducted to assess whether the organisation's child protection policies or procedures require modification to better protect the
